Welcoming Plenary - Co-sponsored by Durham County Library
Rosenwald enthusiasts will be welcomed with regional music, opening remarks and an inspiring keynote address inside the main stage of the beautifully restored Beaux-Arts style Carolina Theatre. Built in 1923, the Carolina Theatre was the first theater in Durham open to African Americans.

6:00 PM - 8:00 PM

Donors Reception Connie Moses Ballroom (Carolina Theatre) (by invitation only)
Welcoming Reception
Join fellow attendees at the Durham Armory for food, drink and live music as we celebrate our gathering in Durham. This is the perfect way to end the first full day of the conference on a high note, while networking with your peers at a Durham institution—the Durham Armory has hosted dances since the 1950's, and was the inspiration of Ernie Barnes' famous painting "the Sugar Shack."

Closing Plenary
Travel by bus or car to the B.N. Duke Auditorium on the campus of North Carolina Central University. Special guest speakers will share passionate words of encouragement to lead us in shaping the future of Rosenwald Schools.

6:30 PM - 9:30 PM

Summer Starlight Jazz Soiree, Russell School
Visit the beautifully preserved Russell Rosenwald School and join the Friends of Russell Rosenwald School as we wrap up the conference during a relaxing summer evening, dining under the stars while listening to a favorite local jazz trio. A silent auction with works by locally significant artists will complement the evening. Tours will be given throughout the evening of Russell School, built in 1926 and the only remaining Rosenwald School in the county. This is a ticketed event. Cost is $50 per ticket until June 5. Conference attendees receive a $5 discount. After June 5 tickets are $65 with no discount available. Russell School is approximately 20 minutes from downtown Durham and attendees are responsible for their own transportation.
